Frequently Asked Questions

What is the Restaurant Bridge Fund?

To meet the existing and future COVID-19 related needs for DC's businesses, Mayor Muriel Bowser and the Office of the Deputy Mayor for Planning and Economic Development (DMPED), in partnership with the Council of the District of Columbia, are strategically investing $100 million in The Bridge Fund to sustain the hospitality, entertainment, and retail industries and mitigate the ongoing impact of COVID-19 on workers and businesses. The Bridge Fund is devised to assist small business employers to maintain operations and employees. With $35 million allocated to the restaurant industry, the Restaurant Bridge Fund aims to provide competitive grants to eligible restaurant and food services establishments that have experienced significant economic distress since the beginning of the COVID-19 public health emergency and made plans to respond and adapt to these challenging circumstances.

Full-service restaurants with restaurant licenses, including limited-service restaurants, fast food restaurants, and food service providers such as: bars and taverns with a tavern license, wineries, breweries or distilleries with a tavern license, bakeries, cafes, delicatessens, coffee shops, vending trucks or carts, food trucks, food courts, caterers, and cafeterias would be eligible to apply for the Restaurant Bridge Fund. The funds will support general operational expenses (rent/mortgage/docking expense, payroll, insurance, fuel for mobile vendors, and/or utilities), and expenses incurred related to winterization or COVID-19 preparation.

The Restaurant Fund will award at least 700 grants for eligible businesses with consideration to economic distress, business viability, length of revenue generating operations, and District resident employment.
