Remarks

Polly Donaldson, Director, Department of Housing and Community Development (DHCD)
STAY DC is the District’s new emergency rental assistance program to help households unable to pay rent and utilities due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

The District is receiving approximately $350 million in new federal Emergency Rental Assistance (ERA) funds for STAY DC and related efforts.
Multiple programs have been created, or expanded, during the public health emergency to address housing instability and protect DC’s affordable housing.

- $1.5M for the Tenant Based Rental Assistance Program (TBRA)
- $20M for the COVID-19 Housing Assistance Program (CHAP)
- $115M for the Housing Stabilization Grants
- $1M for the DC Mortgage Assistance Program (DC MAP)
- $14M for the Emergency Rental Assistance Program (ERAP)
- $27.7M for the Emergency Solutions Grants
- $16M for the Low Income Home Energy Assistance Program (LIHEAP)

STAY DC replaces CHAP and will augment ERAP and LIHEAP.
