INTRODUCTION

Thank you for your interest in the Retail Bridge Fund. This document will help you complete the application and answer common questions. The Retail Bridge Fund will support local brick-and-mortar retail establishments, including bookstores, clothing stores, salons, massage establishments, art galleries, fitness studios, and dry cleaners. The funds will support general operational expenses (rent, mortgage, payroll, insurance, and/or utilities), as well as operating expenses related to COVID-19.

The Retail Bridge Fund is a competitive grant program; grantees will be selected based on business viability, number of employees, and tenure. Additionally, 15% of the funds ($2.25 million) will be set aside for businesses that are eligible to be both a Resident-Owned Business (ROB) and a Small Business Enterprise (SBE); and one of the following:

- at least 51% owned by economically disadvantaged individuals;
- at least 51% woman-owned; OR
- a certified Disadvantaged Business Enterprise as determined by the DC Department of Small and Local Business Development (DSLBD).

This opportunity is geared towards retail establishments with a physical retail storefront located in the District of Columbia. The Retail Bridge Fund application will open on Monday, December 14, 2020 at 11:00 am EST. The application will close on Friday, January 8, 2021 at 5:00 pm EST. Applications not received by the deadline will not be considered.

The Latino Economic Development Center (LEDC) will serve as Grant Administrator for the Retail Bridge Fund on behalf of the District's Office of the Deputy Mayor for Planning and Economic Development (DMPED).

LEDC nor DMPED nor any partnered technical assistance programs are responsible for any outages or malfunctions on the technology platform that could result in an applicant being unable to submit their application. Please refer to the last page of this document for technical assistance resources.

BEFORE YOU BEGIN

Check our Eligibility Chart to ensure your business type falls under the Retail Bridge Fund. If you're not sure which program you are eligible for, please email thebridgefund@dc.gov.

Eligibility Requirements

The Retail Bridge Fund will be open to businesses that meet the following criteria:

- A brick-and-mortar, for-profit retail location in the District of Columbia. Online only businesses are ineligible.
- Business may be open and operating, though it may be operating at a limited capacity, OR temporarily closed with plans to reopen on or before January 15, 2020.
- Must have been revenue generating prior to March 17, 2020.
- Maximum of $6 million in annual revenue for 2019 and $4.5 million in revenue as of September 30, 2020.
- Must be Local Business Enterprise (LBE) eligible (see more details below).
- Must demonstrate financial distress (25% decrease in revenue) during the COVID-19 pandemic.
- Must have a current Certificate of Clean Hands (dated within 90 days prior to application date).
- Sole proprietors with a physical storefront are eligible if the owner is a DC resident.
- Franchises are eligible but must be independently owned and operated.

What is the definition of a Local Business Enterprise (LBE) eligible business?

LBE is a category of the Certified Business Enterprise certification, administered by the Department of Small and Local Business Development (DSLBD). The definition for an LBE is below:

- Principal office physically located in the District;
- Chief executive officer and highest-level managerial employees maintain their offices and perform their managerial functions in the District;
- Meets one of the four following standards:
 - More than 50% of the assets, excluding bank accounts, are in the District;
 - More than 50% of the employees are residents of the District;
 - The owners of more than 50% of the business enterprise are residents of the District; OR
 - More than 50% of the total sales or other revenues are derived from transactions in the District
- Is properly licensed under DC law; and
- Is subject to tax under DC law (Chapter 18 of Title 47)

Required Documents

The following documents are required to complete the application.

Active DC Basic Business License	Business licenses are issued by the DC Department of Regulatory and Consumer Affairs (DCRA). To get more information about DC Business Licenses, visit DCRA’s Business Services website or contact DCRA through their online portal. To obtain a copy of your business license, please visit DCRA’s My DC Business Center. The Business License should be in the Business’s name. The address listed in the Business License should match the Certificate of Occupancy. If you have more than one location, make sure to provide the correct Business License. Your business license must be current and may not expire before March 1, 2021. An Occupational or Professional License may not be substituted for a Business License.
Certificate of Occupancy	Certificates of Occupancy are issued by DCRA and are required to occupy any structure other than a single-family dwelling. You should have received one before you were able to locate in your retail space. If you need assistance obtaining a copy of the issued Certificate of Occupancy, you may call DCRA Records Management at (202) 442-4480 to obtain a copy. Your Certificate of Occupancy must be current, and your Business License must have the same address.

Important Notes about Your Documents:

- Failure to provide any of the above documentation that is applicable to your business will result in the disqualification of your application.
- Do not include any substitute documents or placeholder documents; this will also result in the disqualification of your application.
- Please upload documents in Excel or PDF format. A clear JPEG of your identification may be used for ID verification only.
- There is a folder of “Example Documents” within the application portal for reference. If you have questions about whether your document is acceptable, contact LEDC through the application portal via the chat feature, or email retailbridgefund@dc.gov.
- DMPED, LEDC, and/or program partners will not assist applicants with acquiring these documents. All applicants must apply on their own behalf. If you need additional support, please refer to the last page of this document for a list of resources you may contact.

Clean Hands

A Certificate of Clean Hands certifies that your business does not owe a debt to the District of Columbia greater than $100 for fees, fines, taxes, or penalties and that is had filed all required District tax returns. You must register through the MyTax.DC.gov portal to request a Certificate of Clean Hands. You cannot request one via e-mail or phone.

Tips for Obtaining Your Clean Hands:

- o Visit OTR's website to learn how to navigate the process.
- o View a step-by-step guide for setting up an online MyTax.DC.gov account.
- o View a step-by-step guide for requesting a Clean Hands on MyTax.DC.gov.
- o Webinar presentation deck or Video Tutorial
- o See Frequently Asked Questions for other useful info.

If a Notice of Non-Compliance is generated:

It will list the name and telephone number of the agency with whom you have an outstanding obligation. After making a payment on your outstanding obligation (if applicable), you may experience a delay in being able to get your Clean Hands (processing may take five or more business days). After five business days from the day of making a payment, request a Certificate of Clean Hands through MyTax.DC.gov. If you still receive a Notice of Non-Compliance, email CleanHands.Cert@dc.gov to follow-up on the status.

Tips for Contacting OTR with Questions:

- For technical assistance with creating an account on MyTax.DC.gov, contact the E-Services unit at (202) 759-1946 or e-services.otr@dc.gov.
- If you have questions about your Notice of Non-Compliance, send an email to CleanHands.Cert@dc.gov. Describe the issue you're having in as much detail as possible. You should receive a response within one business day.

Income Statement

Income statements (also known as profit and loss statements) document your business' streams of revenue and various expenses. Income statements provided for the Retail Bridge Fund MUST be broken out monthly - annual income statements will not be accepted.

Please provide as much detail as possible on the categories making up your revenue and expenses. At a minimum, your income statement should clearly show each of the following categories by month:

- Total Revenue
- Total Expenses
- Rent/Mortgage Expenses
- Utilities Expenses
- Payroll Expenses (Salaries, Wages, & Payments to Independent Contractors. Employee benefits should be listed separately)

You may download the income statement from your accounting software (as long as it displays the above 5 categories) or use this free template.

Payroll Roster

You will be prompted to upload an employee payroll roster for the month of September 2020. Include names, status (part-time: PT, full-time: FT, contractor: C), monthly payment amount, and states of residence. You can obtain this information from your payroll processor, or you can create a spreadsheet like the image below. Monthly expense should include salaries, wages, and payments to independent contractors only. Do not include the cost of employee benefits. Be sure to remove any personally identifying information such as social security numbers and employee birthdates.

Important Dates

- Application Opens: Monday, December 14, 2020 at 11:00 AM EST
- Info Session #1: Wednesday, December 16, 2020 at 3:00 PM EST
- Info Session #2: Thursday, December 17, 2020 at 10:00 AM EST
- Application Closes: Friday, January 8, 2021 at 5:00 PM EST

If you are unable to attend one of the information sessions, a session recording will be posted to coronavirus.dc.gov/bridgefund.

Review of Information

Prior to the formal review process, each application will receive an initial screening to ensure the application is complete and meets the minimum requirements. An application will not be evaluated if:

1. The application is received after the closing date of Friday January 8, at 5:00 PM EST
2. The application is incomplete (e.g. missing required documentation)
3. The applicant's business does not meet the minimum eligibility requirements for the Retail Bridge Fund

All application entries will be verified for accuracy based on supporting documentation. It is important to ensure that all documentation is accurate and legible. Applications deemed ineligible or incomplete will not be advanced for final award recommendation. Selected grantees will be notified by LEDC about next steps, including executing the grant agreement, completing the payment form (or ACH form), and submitting a W-9 form. Use of electronic transfer of funds is preferred for payment of grant funds (grantees are expected to provide banking information to process the transfer of funds).

Selected grantees will also be required to submit reporting on the use of funds during the performance period. Failure to do so could jeopardize the business' ability to take advantage of future grant opportunities.

APPLICATION GUIDE

This guide is designed to give applicants a walk-through of each question in the application and provide guidance on how to fill out the application.

The text in italics throughout this guide reflects the actual question text appearing on the application portal.

About the Application Platform

To access the application form, you'll need to register your email address and create an account. Once you've created an account, you'll be able to save your progress and resume the application at a later time. Please note that you'll only be allowed to submit ONE application per email address. If you are applying for multiple businesses, you'll need to create multiple accounts with different email addresses.

You will have the ability to contact LEDC directly in the application platform if you require technical assistance or have questions. You can also email LEDC at BFretail@ledcmetro.org. Frequently Asked Questions and example documents will be available to reference inside the application portal (you will need to be logged in to your account to view these links).
