What to Know About Unemployment Benefits

As of Friday, April 24 workers can file for Pandemic Unemployment Assistance (PUA) at does.dc.gov

Individuals receiving UI benefits can begin filing for extended benefits today
(13 additional weeks of benefits)

Workers who receive PUA and traditional Unemployment Insurance benefits will receive the additional $600/week

-  Residents cannot be evicted right now and late fees cannot be charged.
-  Renters are encouraged, to the best of their ability, to stay current on rent.
-  If you can't make rent, reach out to your housing provider, DHCD's network of housing counseling organizations, or the Office of the Tenant Advocate.

Mortgage guidance is available on coronavirus.dc.gov.

The Department of Housing and Community Development (DHCD) has developed a $1.5 million program funded by federal HOME dollars to offer tenant-based rental assistance to low-income renters.

- Rental assistance will allow tenants to remain current with monthly rent payments, and can be used retroactively to pay April and May rent.
- The fund is estimated to assist 400 households for a minimum of six months and up to two years based on financial need and available funds.
- Community-Based Non-Profit Organizations will work with renters to manage and disburse funds.

Call for applications will open on Monday, May 11.

DC Small Business Recovery Microgrants

DC SMALL BUSINESS ★ ★ ★ RECOVERY MICROGRANT PROGRAM
