

Update on Commission on the Arts & Humanities Operating Status during COVID-19 Emergency

NOTICE: The Public Health Emergency is now in effect through April 24; school and government reopen on April 27.

What is our operating status?

We are operating on a telework status and have modified how some services are being provided which are listed below.

How does this impact what we do?

- Grantee invoices and payments - will continue to be received and processed as quickly as possible while our staff is working remotely.
- Applications for MuralsDC - are open for submission; however, staff review and feedback of draft applications prior to submission may be delayed.
- Grant application reviewers with upcoming panels - will receive information from CAH staff regarding the review and panel process.

How does this impact our physical locations?

- CAH Offices at 200 I Street SE, Suite 1400 - closed to the public from March 16 to March 31, 2020.

What precautions are we taking to limit the spread of the coronavirus (COVID-19)?

Our employees are taking precautions to keep themselves healthy and limit the spread of infections like regularly washing their hands, cleaning facilities more frequently, and reducing close contact with each other and residents. Employees have been asked to let their supervisor know immediately if they feel sick.

Where should you go if you have questions?

For questions about any of the services we provide and information on any future changes, please contact us at 202-341-9908 or jeffrey.scott@dc.gov. For more information, please visit coronavirus.dc.gov.
